

BOTANY (BOT)

BOT 203: General Field Botany (4)

This course provides an overview of plant systematics with emphasis on identification of southwestern Oregon native trees, shrubs and herbs. Additional topics will include discussions of local plant evolution, plant communities, fire ecology, and pollination ecology. Field trips are offered

Terms Typically Offered: Spring